Re: Application Of DELTEL, Inc. For A Certificate of PC&N To Transact
The Business Of A Reseller Of Interexchange Telecommunication
Services And For Modified Alternative Regulation
Docket No. 2004-358-C

Dear Mr. Terreni:

I am writing to correct an error in a letter from the Office of Regulatory Staff in the above captioned matter. On June 2, 2005, ORS mailed a letter to the Commission and the Parties of Record concerning an inadvertent communication.

The letter was posted on the Commission's docketing system today, and, after review, I noted a typographical error that should be corrected. The second sentence in the second paragraph should read "Further, the Staff members specifically requested I convey this request to Ms. Shealy; therefore, I am confident there was no willful intent behind this communication."

I apologize for this omission and I have included a revised copy of the letter for your use. Please let me know if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Benjamin P. Mustian

Docket No. 2004-358-C

Dear Mr. Terreni:

I am writing concerning an inadvertent communication that was made on June 2, 2005, concerning issues in the above docket. On June 2, 2005, after the hearing concerning this matter, Commission Staff members David Butler, Joseph Melchers and Doug Pratt discussed with me certain questions they had regarding the authority the applicant was requesting. Specifically, they expressed concerns about the authority requested and asked me to contact Bonnie Shealy, attorney for the applicant, for her to further comment on why the applicant is only asking for authority to resell interexchange telecommunications services, but has included certain vertical services in its tariff that are traditionally offered only by local exchange carriers.

I have discussed this matter with Ms. Shealy and the parties agree there was no intentional ex parte communication and no bias was conveyed. Further, the Staff members specifically requested I convey this request to Ms. Shealy; therefore, I am confident there was no willful intent behind this communication. However, as this discussion could be strictly construed as discussing an issue that is to be decided in this proceeding, the parties believe this communication should be disclosed and made part of the record as provided by S.C. Code Ann. § 58-3-260(E).

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Benjamin P. Mustian
